

LONG ISLAND

Where the Sea Shore and Country Offers Every Variety of Ideal Suburban Home and Home Sites

THE GATEWAY TO A COUNTRY HOME

Transportation is of first importance in the selection of a country homeplace. The service of the Long Island Railroad makes Long Island easier to reach than any other suburban district. The Pennsylvania Station, 7th Ave. and 33d St., uptown, and the subway trains to Brooklyn (Flatbush Ave. Station) downtown, from which clean, roomy and well lighted electric trains are operated, are admirably located for quick and convenient travel.

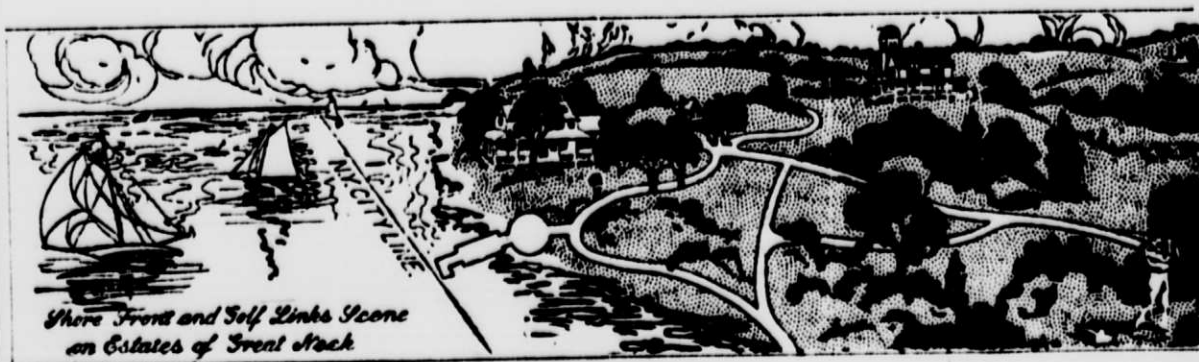

Easy traveling from all over New York to all over Long Island makes the most perfect suburban places, also the most perfectly accessible. No one, seeing, denies the wonderful superiority of Long Island over all other suburban districts in climatic conditions, due to its water surroundings, the healthfulness resulting, its unique and endless variety of sports or recreations, its perfect roads, schools and physical advantages.

GO TO-DAY, SEE LONG ISLAND AND SELECT THE PLACE FOR YOUR SUMMER OR PERMANENT HOME.

Send for the General Passenger Agent, Room 376, for 1912 book containing numerous illustrations and valuable information concerning Long Island's beauty spots.

Estates of Great Neck North Shore of Long Island

Home Rule

SUPPOSE you knew of an incorporated village just beyond the City boundary, adjoining a railroad station, with an area of 450 acres and one-half mile of water frontage on Little Neck Bay, which has an elevation of 100 feet and compared favorably with Central Park in topographical beauty, having winding macadam roads (not streets), concrete walks, electric light and pure water?

SUPPOSE you knew that this ideal Village of Home Rule without City taxes and City assessments, where the residents elect their own officers and fix their own taxes, is within 29 minutes of the Pennsylvania Terminal in Manhattan?

SUPPOSE you knew that its houses are of the best design and construction, its transportation facilities unequalled, its recreations, a beautiful golf course, tennis courts, boating and bathing?

SUPPOSE we could show you such an ideal locality?

DON'T YOU THINK IT WOULD BE JUST THE KIND OF A PLACE YOU WOULD SELECT FOR YOUR HOME?
